

Charter School Search for School Leader Focus Group Questions

1. What education, skill set, and experience should the new school leader bring to the position?
2. What leadership traits and characteristics are critical to a leader in this position?
3. What short term and long term issues will the successful candidate need to focus on at the beginning of his/her tenure as a Charter School leader?
4. What should the Board, staff, and parents do to assist the leader in making a successful transition into the position, the school, and the district overall?
5. What would most contribute to a new school leader's failure?

Five (5) years from now, what substantive difference should be evident in this Charter School as a result of his/her leadership?